Other data processing
If the Data Controller intends to carry out further processing, it shall provide prior information on the material circumstances of the processing (legal background and legal basis of the processing, purpose of the processing, scope of the data processed, duration of the processing). You will be informed that written requests for data from public authorities based on a legal mandate must be complied with by the Data Controller. The Data Controller shall keep records of data transfers in accordance with Article 15 (2) to (3) of the Data Protection Act (to which authority, what personal data, on what legal basis, when the Data Controller transferred the data), the content of which the Data Controller shall provide information on request, unless the provision of information is excluded by law.

Data security measures
The Data Controller declares that it has implemented appropriate security measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, transmission, disclosure, erasure or destruction and against accidental destruction or accidental damage and inaccessibility resulting from changes in the technology used.

Your rights in the processing of your data
For the duration of the processing, you have the right to:

the right to be informed,
the right to rectification of the data,
the right to obtain information, the right to rectification of your personal data, the right to rectification of your personal data,
the right to have the data blocked,
the right to object.
You may request information from the Controller about the processing of your personal data within the period of processing. The Data Controller shall inform you in writing, in an intelligible form, of the data processed, the purposes, legal basis and duration of the processing, as well as, where the data have been further processed, the persons to whom and for what purposes the data are or have been disclosed, as soon as possible after the request, but not later than 25 days from the date of the request.

You may, within the period of processing, request the Controller to rectify your personal data. The Controller shall comply with your request within 15 days at the latest.

You have the possibility to request the erasure of your personal data, which the Controller will comply with within 15 days at the latest. The right to erasure does not apply if the Controller is obliged by law to continue to store the data or in cases where the Controller is entitled to continue to process the personal data in accordance with Article 6(5) of the Infotv.

You may request the Controller to block the personal data if the final deletion of the data would harm the legitimate interests of the data subject. Personal data blocked in this way may be processed only for as long as the purpose which precluded the deletion of the personal data continues to exist.

You may object to the processing of your personal data, if the processing or transfer of the personal data is necessary solely for compliance with a legal obligation to which the Controller is subject or for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Controller, the data importer or a third party, except in the case of mandatory processing and in the case provided for in Article 6(5) of the Data Protection Act;

if the personal data is used or transmitted without your consent for direct marketing, public opinion polling or scientific research.
The Data Controller shall examine the objection within the shortest possible time from the date of the request, but not later than 15 days, decide whether it is justified and inform you in writing of its decision. If the controller does not comply with the data subject's request for rectification, blocking or erasure, it shall, within 25 days of receipt of the request, communicate in writing or, with the data subject's consent, by electronic means, the factual and legal grounds for refusing the request for rectification, blocking or erasure.

Remedies
If you believe that the Data Controller has violated a legal provision on data processing or has failed to comply with a request, you may initiate an investigation procedure with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (postal address: 1530 Budapest, PO Box 5, e-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu) to stop the alleged unlawful processing. You are also informed that you may take legal action against the Data Controller in case of violation of the legal provisions on data processing or if the Data Controller has not complied with any of your requests.
